associate approach

When working with The Libbys' associate photographers, couples can expect the same elevated experience and signature style imagery. While our team manages everything from emails to editing our associates focus on their craft and connection. With over a decade of expertise, we have cultivated a boutique approach that guarantees consistency through a streamlined workflow and high quality timeless photographs.

ABOUT

style & approach

The Libbys' signature style of photography is romantic and classic with a light and bright feel that is as timeless and authentic as your love.

Our approach to working with couples is genuine and natural with an organic flow of poses and candid imagery. We believe the small things are the big things and that it's such an incredible honor to document your story.

associate destiny

Destiny finds joy in capturing the beauty of a place, person, or a moment in time - whether in her home state of Maine, or through travels to different countries across the world. While she was always the friend behind the camera, she began photographing special moments professionally in 2018, and has been photographing weddings, engagements, and family portraits ever since. She has a talent for documenting emotion, creating heirloom images for couples and their families to enjoy for generations. All the while, she seamlessly infuses her fun personality into the entire experience.

OUR COUPLES

Our favorite kinds of weddings are the ones that are full of thoughtful details, heartfelt words, and epic dance parties. They're the types of celebrations that leave an imprint on our hearts and inspire us with design, emotion, and uniqueness.
